ward pass from Bagley and running seventy yards down a clear field to the goal. Moore, too, kicked all three goals.

A new formation which Hopkins worked, calling for half the team to play about twenty yards to either right or left of centre, was used once against the visitors, and after that Hopkins did not gain on the play.

A large contingent of Virginia Military alumni cheered the team, and after the game gave a dinner at the Emerson Hotel and a box party at the Gaiety Theatre to the players. Hopkins roared had a band and yelled for the Black and Blue until the last whistle.

Score in First Period. Virginia scored in the first, second and fourth quarters, the first touchdown coming after two minutes of play. Lamotte kicked to Patterson, who came up to the sixty-yard line. An incomplete pass was followed by a successful one from Moore to Lowery, which went for fifteen yards, and was carried five yards more by Lowery. Kingman went through the left side of the Hopkins line for a ten-yard gain. Dewey Penniman carried Clarkson back three yards, but Leech gained four through tackle on the next play. Bain went through tackle on the following down and got away to the one-yard line before being downed by Connolly. Kingman took the ball over center for a touchdown. Moore kicked. Touel kicked to Knips, and after three downs with a two-yard gain, Bagley punted to Moore. Moore returned the punt over the goal line. In the next scrimmage Halfback Leech twisted his already injured knee, and had to be carried from the field. Burgess replaced him. Several punts were exchanged and play was mostly muddled.

At the beginning of the second quarter Hopkins lost the ball on downs in Virginia on the latter's thirty-yard line. Moore kicked to Bagley, and after two downs Bagley returned to Moore, who stiff-armed three of Hopkins' players. After an incomplete pass, Branham tried to kick a goal from the field from the forty-yard line. Gutierrez, Virginia's Spanish guard, blocked the kick, and Clarkson recovered. Merry and Bain carried the ball towards Hopkins' goal eleven yards on line plays, and on the next down Kingman skirted past right end and ran forty-five yards for another touchdown. Moore kicked goal.

Play in the fourth period began with the ball in Hopkins' possession in midfield. Bagley's forward pass to Lamotte gained twenty yards, and Bagley tried another, which was intercepted by Knips. After an incomplete pass, Branham tried to kick a goal from the field from the forty-yard line. Gutierrez, Virginia's Spanish guard, blocked the kick, and Clarkson recovered. Merry and Bain carried the ball towards Hopkins' goal eleven yards on line plays, and on the next down Kingman skirted past right end and ran forty-five yards for another touchdown. Moore kicked goal.

Three Men Arrested

BY REVENUE OFFICERS. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Woodstock, Va., Nov. 28.—Revenue officers McDonald, Meehan and Brown appeared at Woodstock Tuesday, at night they hired a team and drove to Trout Run Valley and arrested T. A. Rittenour, Richard and Mabel Rittenour, who were charged with illicit distilling and dealing in liquor. These officers were in the residence of T. A. Rittenour, and captured him in bed. It will be remembered that Rittenour several years ago was charged with the murder of Brody in Frederick County. He was twice convicted of murder in the first degree, but obtained new trials, and on the third trial was acquitted. After arresting Rittenour, the officers went to the homes of Richard and Mabel Rittenour. The prisoners were brought to Woodstock in time to take the morning southbound train.

News of Petersburg

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 1 Bollingbrook Street, Petersburg, Va., November 28.

Petersburg Lodge of Elks will hold their annual lodge of sorrow in the Elks' Home Sunday afternoon next. An appropriate program of exercises has been prepared for the occasion, and the memorial address will be delivered by Samuel W. Zimmer, a member of the Petersburg bar and of the lodge.

Rebuttal Testimony.

The taking of rebuttal testimony in behalf of the defendants in the long drawn out case of the Harrison Street (colored) Baptist Church will begin tomorrow before Commissioner J. E. Prince in the law office of R. B. Davis & Son. The probability is that several days will be consumed in taking this testimony, and it may be some time before the case is finally decided in court.

Two Quiet Marriages.

This morning at 9 o'clock, in the parsonage of the Washington Street M. E. Church, the Rev. George E. Booker, D. D., officiating, Miss Margaret E. Stallings, of this city, and James Calvin Roach, of Henderson, N. C., were married, a few intimate friends being present. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for Raleigh.

In Richmond yesterday, by the Rev. Mr. Edwards, Mrs. Elizabeth Sanford Collier, of this city, and Wade Greene, formerly of Durham, N. C., now of Petersburg, were married.

General News Notes.

The subscriptions to the fund for the Y. M. C. A. building footed up a total of $23,555 at the close of yesterday's work. No more reports will be made until tomorrow evening, when a large increase of subscriptions is expected.

Snow fell to the depth of between two and three inches during the latter part of the night. It has mostly disappeared to-day, but its appearance was a surprise to the people generally.

Mrs. Nannie Hampton died last night at her home on Cameron Street, in Blanford, after an illness of several months. She is survived by several children.

The Salvation Army served dinner to between one and two hundred children at noon to-day, at the Y. M. C. A. headquarters. The little folks were mostly from the West End and Ettrick, and greatly enjoyed themselves.

Thanksgiving Day was generally observed in the city. There were services in the churches and in the business section of the city the stores were closed. Notwithstanding the unpropitious weather, hundreds of Petersburg males and females, went to Richmond to see the football game.

NO REASON FOR DOUBT

As to the Merits of Cardui, the Woman's Tonic, in View of Such Evidence.

Tecumseh, Okla.—In a letter from this town, Mrs. Elisa Epperson says: "I do believe that if it hadn't been for Cardui, the woman's tonic, I wouldn't have been living to-day."

I am so glad that I began taking Cardui when I did. Before I began using it I was in bad health and suffered considerable pain in head, shoulders, back, side, limbs and lower part of my body.

Cardui helped me more than anything I ever did take, and I am in better health since taking it than I have been in four (4) years.

I shall never be without Cardui, the woman's tonic, in my home, and will always recommend it to other ladies."

Can you doubt the merit of Cardui after reading the above letter? This is only one of many that we receive each year. Such testimony from earnest women surely proves the great value of this tonic medicine for the ailments peculiar to their sex.

Cardui acts on the weakened womanly organs. It helps to refresh the worn-out nerves, and is the ideal medicine for young and old.

As a tonic for women it has brought remarkable results.

As a remedy for women's ills its friends say it has no equal.

N. B.—Write to Ladies' Advisory Dept. Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper on request.

Arrested at School

Alfred Branch and Disorderly Man Says He Is Professor.

On the charge of being drunk and disorderly in the city of Marshall High School, where the sessions of the Virginia Educational Conference are being held, a man, who gave his name as W. J. Jones, and his occupation as a professor, was arrested last night by Patrolman Daniels. Jones had been out of the building several times by the janitor, and the third time he was taken in custody. He was taken to the First Police Station. Whether he was attending the conference could not be learned. He refused to talk when locked up.

Comment Announced.

Fredericksburg, Va., Nov. 28.—Judge and Mr. T. H. R. Wright, of Tappahannock, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Charlotte Frances Barnes Wright, to Dr. Frank Garrett Scott, of Orange, the wedding to be celebrated the latter part of December.
